Mr. Lester Ball.

Lester Ball was born on September 28th, 1815, on the sixth lot of the sixth range of the township of Brome. Mr. Ball's grandfather, Jacob Ball, came from Dunham into Brome in 1800, having lived in Dunham six or seven years. He was born in Newfane, Vermont, in 1764, but settled in early manhood on South Hero Island, in Lake Champlain. Here his son, afterwards known as Captain James Ball, and the father of Lester Ball, was born.

The wife of the grandfather of Mr. Ball was a daughter of Captain Ephraim Stone, who settled in Brome on the farm where R. Edmund Miller now lives.

Captain Ephraim Stone was not a United Empire Loyalist, but was a Revolutionary soldier, and was a lieutenant at Lexington and Bunker Hill. He was also at Ticonderoga (see New Hampshire Revolutionary Rolls).

He was born at Westmoreland, New Hampshire. His son-in-law, Jacob Ball, was of a U. E. L. family.

Father James Ball, father of Lester Ball, married his cousin, Abigail Stone, daughter of Daniel Stone, who was also a Revolutionary soldier and a corporal in Captain Cole's Company.

This Daniel Stone settled in Brome in 1799 on the farm now owned by Jerry Jackson.

On September 2nd, 1839, Lester Ball married Mary Ann Gilman. Their children were: Alexander Lester, born June, 1840, lives in Dublin, N. H.; Newton S., born February 1st, 1842, lives in Springfield, Mass.; Alzina Mary, born March 8th, 1845, married C. H. Smith, of Moncton, Vt.; Edgar Adolphus, born March 8th, 1847, lives in Springfield, Mass.; Martha Dorinda, born July 10th, 1854, married Caspar H. Dean, of Moncton, Vt.; Ernest Selby, born August 10th, 1856, lives in New York; Forest Eugene, born January, 1859, lives in Deerfield, Mass.

Until 1898 Mr. Lester Ball, with the exception of one year, lived in Brome township. In the autumn of 1898 he and his wife went to live with their son in New York city.

Mr. Ball has been a farmer all his life. This did not prevent him from emulating the example of his father and other relatives when the Canadian Rebellion broke out. He served as sergeant in the infantry in 1837. The next year, 1838, he joined the cavalry as private under Captain Alonzo Wood. He still holds his discharge. He holds a Lieutenant's commission in a special company commanded by Captain Bullard.

Mr. Ball served as school commissioner for twelve years, and was chairman of the Board for eight years of that time.

He is one of the charter members of the first Good Templars' Lodge formed in Brome. He also joined the Sons of Temperance. He has been a teetotaler throughout his long life.

Mr. Ball served his township as bridge inspector for two terms.

On his marriage day Mr. Ball made three vows: 1. That his wife should never see him come home drunk. 2. That she should never hear him use profane language. 3. That neither she, nor his children should they have any, would ever see him working on Sunday in any unnecessary way. These vows he has been able to keep.

Mr. Ball lived on the highland farm near where the Knowlton Reservoir is now located. This place is the eleventh lot of the eleventh range of Brome. His father, Captain James Ball, then lived on the north side of Cold Brook, opposite the factory (the farm now owned by Frederick England, Esq.). Captain James Ball settled on that farm in 1817, when Lester was two years old.

Mr. Ball is still very active and every summer spends a few weeks in Brome in August, and attends the annual meeting of the Brome County Historical Society, of which he is one of the Honorary Presidents.

Mr. Ball is ninety-three years of age and apparently in perfect health.

Jacob Ball, formerly of Newfane, Vt., lived for years on South Hero Island in Lake Champlain. His wife was a daughter of Capt. Epjraim Stone. Capt. James Ball, son of Jacob, was born on South Hero Island in 1787. He married his cousin, Abigail Stone, daughter of Daniel Stone, a Revolutionary soldier and a corporal in Captain Cole's Company.

Jacob Ball came to Brome in 1800 and settled on the land where the major part of Brome Village now stands. He constructed the first frame house in the township. It stood where the home of Mrs. Edgar Chapman now stands. It had four fireplaces, one being on each of the four sides of a huge stone chimney passing up through the centre of the somewhat large house, thus heating four large rooms. A large piece of the frame of this original home of Jacob Ball was supplied to the Museum by the late Lester Ball, grandson of Jacob Ball.

Capt. James Ball lived to be ninety-seven years of age, being one of the pioneers of Knowlton, and a partner of the founder of the village, Col. P. H. Knowlton. Capt. James Ball had two sons, James, Jr., and Lester.

Lester Ball died in 1916 having passed the century mark. He was able to read and enjoy the newspapers within two days of his death. He wrote a letter at this time to the secretary of our Society which was so clear and interesting that, at the suggestion of the late Judge Lynch and the Honourable Sydney Fisher, it was framed and is on exhibition in the museum.

Lester Ball's sister who outlived her brother, dying in her 102nd year, and known as Mrs. Timothy Chamberlin, related to me on her 100th birthday this remarkable account of her grandmother who was a daughter of Capt. Ephraim Stone: "My grandmother was a woman of remarkable energy, determination, and skill. One time when my father received a summons to appear in Court in Montreal, and there were only three days before he must start, and he had no suitable pants in which to appear, she went to the pasture and caught and sheared a black sheep, then caught and sheared a white sheep. She carded this wool into rolls, spun it into yarn, quilled the necessary quantity of one color for the woof, then, taking the other color for the warp and placing it properly in the loom, she wove some cloth into small black and white checks. When she judged that she had a sufficient quantity of cloth she took it from the loom and made the required pants for my grandfather, working without sleep for three days and two nights that her husband might go suitably clothed to the city."

Mr. Lester Ball, who was born in the Township of Brome in 1815, when a young man setting sable traps in the Bolton Mountains discovered the Bolton Pass as a suitable place through which to construct a road. He went to Col. Paul Holland Knowlton, who with him took it in hand.

Capt. James Ball was a partner with Colonel Knowlton, who was then M. L. C. of Lower Canada, and he succeeded in getting a grant from the Government. This was about 1842, but a few years passed, however, after the survey before the work of construction was begun. Capt. Jas. Ball was the superintendent of the work. He lived on the north side of Cold Brook, which farm is now owned by Mr. Kenneth Dawes of Montreal. It is worthy of note that his son, the afore-mentioned Lester Ball, became the first Hon.-President of our Historical Society and lived to pass the one hundred year mark.

of Ernesttown.

This file contains known ancestry and some collateral branches of the Ball Family which originated in Vermont and eventually settled in Ernesttown Township.

Family tradition, as furnished by my grandfather Percy and many other members of my family, as well as an admission of relationship between the Ball and Martin families, reveals that the wife of Amos Martin was Susannah Ball. Their daughter, Annie, was the wife of Michael Ryan Percy and the mother of my grandfather, Joseph Lott Percy.

A tombstone in Wilton Cemetery reveals that Susannah Ball died Feb. 20, 1844, aged 82 years, by which it is assumed that she was born in 1761. The first official reference to her is found in the Haldimand Papers (Public Archives, Ottawa), where it is shown as follows:

List of Unincorporated Loyalists in St. John's and Environs, 25 May, 1784.

Amos Martin, wife and 2 children Hitherto provisioned, has neither de-

Jacob Ball, wife and one child clined or not appeared to give in their names for the lands proposed by Government.

That this family was in St. John's in January, 1784, is confirmed by a

List of unincorporated Loyalists who Petitioned for Lands Jan. 20, 1784

Mosha Martin

Simeon Martin.

There is no further record of this family until April 5, 1791, when there is a record that an application by Amos Martin with respect to land had been rejected, reasons for refusal not known.

The Martin family was residing on Amherst Island by 1793, as confirmed by the following.

Sept. 15, 1793 Deborah Ball ~~buried~~ of Amherst Island was interred. (Evidently Susanna's mother)

April 10, 1794. Amos Martin appointed constable of Amherst Island.

Sept. 15, 1794 James, Amos, Susannah, William and Mary, children of Amos and Susanna Martin were christened.

On June 1, 1797, Amos Martin of St. John's Lodge, F. & A. M. was a visitor at Lodge No. 6, Kingston. On 14 Sept. 1802, he signed a petition for a Masonic Lodge in Ernesttown. When the lodge was chartered 14 March, 1803, he was the first Senior Warden. His name appears in Lodge records up to 19 Nov. 1806, when he is recorded as being Junior Warden.

Between that date and Sept. 1808, Amos Martin left his family to go to Vermont. He never returned until 1837. His departure and non-return evidently left his family in straitened circumstances, because an entry in the Vestry Book of St. John's Church, Bath, dated 25 Sept. 1808 reads "Offeritory money - 14/9 was by consent given to the relief of William Martin," assuming that this William Martin was the responsible head of the fatherless family.

Family tradition regarding the re-marriage of the forsaken wife to Peter Asselstine, U.E., is confirmed by these items:

Married Peter Asselstine and Susannah Ball, both of Ernesttown, 1 Jan. 1809
McDowall's Marriage Register.

Susannah Asselstine, died Feb. 20, 1844, aged 82. Erected by her son William Martin.
Wilton Cemetery.

An additional entry in Langhorn Parish Register reveals that Amos and Susannah Martin witnessed the marriage of Silas Nichols and Elizabeth Heather in Bath 3 May 1797.

Grandfather Percy states that Amos Martin returned to Canada in the fall of 1837, bringing with him a son in his teens, named Simeon.. Amos stayed until the winter of 1837-38, when he returned to Vermont, accompanied by his son Amos. Having arrived there, he was greeted as Mr. Tanner, the assumption being that he changed his name after the desertion of his family. It is further stated that he died shortly after reaching Vermont, and is buried there..

American Origin.

If one can believe family tradition that Susannah Ball Martin's descendants were related to descendants of Solomon and Shadrack Ball, all three of whom came from Vermont, and when they are regarded as brothers and sisters, the relationship becomes clear and receives supporting evidence from various early sources.

The volume of the Documentary History of the State of New York dealing with the New Hampshire Grants in what is now the State of Vermont, supply the first known reference to the Ball family in which we are interested. The area now comprising Vermont was disputed ground, New York and New Hampshire both claiming right to colonize it. By the time the British Government had decided in favor of New York, many New Englanders had settled there on grants obtained from New Hampshire. As a result, a number of these settlers petitioned the New York authorities in 1 Nov. 1766. One of the petitioners was Crispin Ball; another was Machir Martin. These two petitioners are probably the fathers of Susannah Ball and of Amos Martin.

On the 1st Nov. 1770 we find Shadrack and Jacob Ball petitioning re the New Hampshire Grants from Cumberland County, as well as Solomon Ball. The two former men petitioned at a later date, while Solomon and James Ball signed a petition on 5 Feb. 1772. All of which shows the presence of the Ball family in what is now Vermont from 1766 to the commencement of the American Revolution. And one can assume that Crispin Ball was the father of Shadrack, Solomon, Jacob and James Ball.

The Annals of Brattleboro confirms the presence of a Ball family in Vermont before the Revolution. This book reads:

Shadrack and Jacob Ball lived in the neighborhood east and north of the common where the meeting house was built. The records of the American War Department show that "one Shadrack Ball served in the Revolutionary War, rank not shown, in Captain Elisha Benedict's Company, 2nd New York Regiment, commanded by Colonel Goose Van Schaick, stationed at Chamblay Fort. His name appears only on the company muster roll covering the period from January 1, to January 11, 1776, which shows that he enlisted January 1, 1776. No further record found."

The Annals of Brattleboro, page 132, read:

Solomon Ball acted as a letter carrier in April, 1782, carrying a letter from General Haldimand in Canada to Newfane.

Shadrack Ball in Mar. 1782, arrived in Brattleboro with another letter directed to Smith.

The above items would make one believe that Crispin Ball settled in the New Hampshire shortly after the Fall of New France, with the first record being dated 1766. His sons evidently were those enumerated above. Of these, Shadrack saw service in the American Rebel Army for a short period early in the war. The Annals of Brattleboro indicate that both Solomon and Shadrack joined the British Army before 1782, during which year they acted as messengers for General Haldimand in the negotiations then under way between the British and the newly-formed Province of Vermont.

Confirmation that some members of this family stayed in the region of Vermont and Northern New York is found in the Census of 1790. In Hoosick Town, Albany County is found

The Ball Family.

Canadian Origins.

The first record of members of this family is the enlistment of Solomon and Shadrack Ball in the Queen's Loyal Rangers, commanded by Lt.-Col. John Peters, at its formation 24 June, 1777. This unit, recruited in what is now Vermont, served in the Campaign with Burgoyne, and at the Convention its members were allowed to retire to Canada. These two men, evidently brothers, continued within the British lines until the Peace in 1783, and both were discharged from the Service 24 Dec. 1783. Both were at St. John's, Que., in 1778, and both were messengers for Gen. Haldimand in 1782 during his negotiations with the newly-formed Province of Vermont. Solomon is shown as serving at Carleton Island in 1781. He married, before Mar. 24, 1783, on which date his wife was provisioned at St. John's. She is shown to be a daughter of Daniel Walker, U.E., by Solomon's petition in 1797. At that time his petition mentions children, Lucinda, Mercy and Esther, as being born before 1789. Solomon's wife was undoubtedly the daughter of Daniel's ~~first~~ ^{second} wife, ~~Jerusha Bates~~ ^{was born in Coventry R.I.}. In a List of Loyalists prepared in the Fall of 1783, Solomon is of Vermont, farmer and taylor who owned his lands. His brother Shadrack is also referred to as a farmer from Vermont.

Solomon Ball settled in the Prescott area in 1784^(?), but later removed to Ernesttown, where he drew lands in 1790. He received Crown Grants for lands in 4th Concession, west half Lot 2, south half Lot 3, and north half Lot 23, in 1802, 1801 and 1815 respectively. This land is evidently that for which he applied for in 1797. In 1797 Solomon Ball made application for admission to St. John's Lodge, No. 6, F. & A. M., Kingston. This application was referred to Bro. Amos Martin, 'a Visitor of St. John's,' likewise his brother-in-law. Solomon was rejected because he had also made an application to Lodge No. 7, and perhaps was also outside the jurisdiction of No. 6. On 14 Sept. 1802, Solomon, evidently then a Mason, signed a petition for a Lodge in Ernesttown (now Bath). In the following year when the charter was granted, he became a charter member of this Lodge, No. 13. In 1812 he served in the 1st Addington Militia. A more or less complete list of his children contains Lucinda, marr. John Sweep (Sweet?), of Ernesttown.

Mercy, marr. Philip Stafford, of Ernesttown.
Esther.
Mary, marr. John Hough, of Ernesttown.
Sarah, marr. Asa Elmer, of Ernesttown.
Susan, marr. Hudson Walker, of Ernesttown, 17 Dec. 1820
Rachel, marr. Joseph Peters, of Ernesttown.
Philip, of Ernesttown.
Solomon, of Portland.

Shadrack Ball also settled in the Prescott area in 1784. He likewise later removed to Ernesttown, where he drew land, but evidently relinquished or sold it before a Crown deed was issued. He married, wife's name unknown, and had the following children:

Timothy, of Loughborough.
Angel, of Pittsburgh.
Cyrenus, of Loughborough.
Sanford, of Pittsburgh.
Belknap, of Pittsburgh.

Another brother would appear to be Jacob who was a soldier in Col. John Peters' Corps or or before 25 June, 1780. He may have been the Jacob Ball who is mentioned in The Minutes of Commissioners for Detecting & Defeating Conspiracies in New York State on Apr. 15, 1778, as "Jacob Ball Junr. having for a long time been confined as a Suspected Person, and nothing specially appearing against him" was released and bound to appear when called. However, in his petition for land, he does not mention imprisonment. In a List of Loyalists in the Fall of 1783, he is listed as being a laborer from Vermont. On 26 Oct. 1783 at St. John's he signed a petition of members of the Loyal Rangers for lands in the Missisquoi Bay area. In a Return on Unincorporated Loyalists at St. John's 25 May, 1784, he, together with Amos Martin (supposed to be his brother-in-law) are shown as not having expressed an opinion relative to lands offered to Loyalists by Government. At this time Jacob is shown to have a wife and one child. In his petition for land, referred to above, he is 'of Ernesttown,' and states that he served in the Loyal Rangers for two years, from which he was discharged at the Peace. He further states that he having business in the Colonies, was unable to draw lands with his regiment, and now asks for his lands in Ernesttown Township. There is no further record of Jacob.

The Ball Family.

Canadian Origins.

A Samuel Ball, of the 2nd Royal Yorkers, enlisted 4 July 1780, may be another brother. He is undoubtedly the husband of Eve Ball whose name appears in the Subsistence Lists. She, with a daughter under six was variously at Pointe Clair, Ste. Genevieve, St. Michael and at Sault au Recollet from 25 Aug. 1781 to July 1783. A Return of Loyalists & Disbanded Troops lodged and victualled at Lachine 19 Sept. 1784 reads

Samuel Ball, wife and one son & one dau. under six, as having 'gone to his lands.

An interesting and convincing feature of the movements of these various members of the Ball Family is that, except for Samuel, they all came from Vermont and all ultimately settled in Ernesttown and its immediate vicinity. This, to my mind, definitely points to their being brothers and sister. Evidently future research may add definite evidence of relationship.

The Ball Family.

Future Research.

Further research into the origins of this family must necessarily be made in libraries, church records, cemetery records, etc. in Vermont and New England, particularly in New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Connecticut. The State Library in Albany, N.Y. would be likely to reveal further information. Likewise the archives in Montpelier, the Capital of Vermont. Records of early New England families in Genealogical Societies, family histories, church and town and county histories, etc., should be searched whenever possible. Likewise, the Genealogical page of the Saturday Hartford Times could be utilized for this purpose.

John and James Ball were original grantees in Newfane Town, Vt., in 1753.

Samuel Ball was grantee in the second charter of Newfane Town in 1762.

According to "Genealogies & History of Watertown, Mass., it is assumed that these persons are John Ball (b. 1705) and his sons, James (b. 1731) and Samuel (b. 1734).

Confirmation of the above is desired.

Parentage required for the following siblings:

Shadrack Ball (b. 1753), of Newfane in 1777.

BENJAMIN.

John Benjamin arrived in the ship Lion Sept. 16, 1632; was admitted freeman Nov. 6, 1632; was a proprietor of Cambridge, and perhaps he first settled there. If so, it was only for a short time, as his house, with goods to the amount of £100, was burnt in Watertown April 7, 1636 (Winthrop, i, 185). Governor Winthrop designates him as "Mr. Benjamin," and in 1642 he had the largest homestead in Watertown. He died June 14, 1643, and inventory (£297.3.2) was made by Simon Stone, John Eddie, and Thomas Marret. His will dated June 12, 1645, two days before his death, mentions beloved wife, not named, eldest son John and seven other children, not named, some of whom were "small" (see Gen. Reg., iii, 176). He appointed "my brother John Eddie, of Watertown" and Thomas Marret of Cambridge, executors. His widow Abigail went with her son-in-law, Joshua Stubbs, to Charlestown about 1654, where she died May 20, 1687, aged 87. Probably she did not live continuously in Charlestown. On March 28, 1679, Abigail Benjamin, spinster of Watertown, for 12 sold to John Willington, of Watertown, three parcels of land in Cambridge. (As a Richard Benjamin came over with John in 1632, and was proprietor of Watertown in 1642, he may have been a brother, instead of a son of John, Senr. His age at embarkation is not given).

Children:

1. Mary. She died April 10, 1646. Her will, proved June 4, 1646 (see Gen. Reg. III, 178), mentions Pastor Knolls, her Aunt Wines, sister Abigail Stubbs, cousin Anne Wyes, and brothers, not named. (This Wills renders it very probable that her father left only two daughters; that the wife of Barnabas Wines was a sister of John Benjamin, senr., or of his wife, and that Ann Wyes, in the will, should be Wines).
2. Abigail, married about 1640 or 41, Joshua Stubbs of Watertown.
3. JOHN, died in Watertown Dec. 22, 1706, aged 86.
4. Richard, proprietor of Watertown, 1642; wife Anna.
5. Samuel, born 1628, took oath of fidelity 1652; married Mary.
6. Joshua, of Charlestown, died 1684, s. p., leaving a widow, Thankful.
7. Caleb, settled in Wethersfield, Conn., admitted freeman of Connecticut 1669; died May 8, 1684, leaving a wife, Mary, and six children.
8. Abel, of Charlestown, married Nov. 6, 1671, Amithy Myrick.

JOHN BENJAMIN, Jr., (see above) married Lydia, who died in 1709.

Children:

1. John, born Sept. 10, 1651; died Nov. 18, 1708; married Mehitabel.
2. Lydia, born April 3, 1653; married Thomas Batt, of Boston.
3. Abigail, born July 14, 1655.

8. Abel, born May 20, 1668; died March 4, 1720.

DANIEL BENJAMIN, married March 25, 1687, Elizabeth Brown, who died Aug. 8, 1740 (see Brown). He was licensed to keep an inn, April 24, 1694 to 1699.

Children:

BROWNE (BROWN).

Introduction.

There were three early settlers of Watertown, of the name of Browne, belonging, as we have reason to believe, to the same family, and nearly related, viz.: Richard, Abraham and John. There is little doubt that John was a nephew to Richard. It was for some time believed, upon apparently very satisfactory evidence, that Abraham and Richard were brothers; but some facts have come to light that would harmonize as well with the supposition that Abraham was the nephew of Richard (see note 7). Mr. Somerby has satisfactorily traced the lineage of this family, through several generations, to Christopher Browne, of the parish of Hawkedon, co. Suffolk, England, and thence to the ancient family of Browne, of the Borough of Stamford, in Lincolnshire, and of Tolethorpe, in the county of Rutland; the latter, the principal seat of the head of the family for probably four hundred years or more. In the preceding pedigree, Richard and Abraham appear as brothers, and this was probably their true relation. Diligent search in England has failed to bring ~~XXXX~~ to light any records that bring down the Hawkedon branch of the family to a later period than is shown in the pedigree; and in the absence of record or other strong evidence to show that Abraham belonged to the succeeding generation, he will probably remain undisturbed in his place in the table, as shown by the records relating to the Hawkedon family, and which harmonizes with all known facts, except the loose recitals referred to in note 7; and these may with equal plausibility be construed either way.

Note 7.

The records of Boston and of the county of Suffolk (Mass.) show that there was an Edmund Browne, a proprietor of Boston, as early as 1647, who married, 14 Dec., 1653, Elizabeth Oakley (daughter of "Mary, the relict of the late Robert Bouchier, alias Garret" (Gannet?). She was probably a daughter by a former marriage, or a widow at the time of her marriage to Browne.) They had two children, Mary, born Dec. 15, 1656, and John, born Oct. 9, 1660. He died, after an absence of several years, at Sardainham (Surinam?). Both of his children also died early, and Jonathan, the son of Abraham Browne, of Watertown, inherited his land as next of kin. In a deed, dated Jan. 1, 1672-3, from Jonathan to one Richard Taylor, conveying the reversion of some of Edmund's real estate, he recites that he is "cousin and next heir of said Edmund;" and afterwards, in the same instrument, he calls Edmund his uncle. In a suit for possession of a piece of land belonging to the estate, Edmund (1682) is incidentally several times called ~~his~~ uncle of Jonathan. The records relating to Edmund bear evidence of great carelessness, and are in many respects contradictory and difficult, if not impossible, to harmonize with any hypothesis that may be assumed to reconcile them. It is believed, according with the first recital in said deed, that Edmund was a nephew of Abraham, and brother to John, of Watertown, and son of John, of Hawkedon. His birth does not appear in the table of pedigree; but the early parish register (commencing in 1538) is lost. There is now none dating back beyond 1709. It was the custom as early as 1560 for clergymen to deposit certified copies of these registers each year in the Will offices. Very few of these copies are now in existence. It was amongst those remaining in the office of Bury St. Edmunds, relative to Hawkedon, that were found the baptisms of Mary and John, the children of John, and grandchildren of Thomas, of Hawkedon. The births and baptisms of no other grandchildren of said Thomas have been discovered.

We have scarcely a doubt that Edmund was the son of John, of Hawkedon. This supposition best harmonizes all known facts. The name of his son John, for his supposed paternal grandfather--the daughter being named Mary for her maternal grandmother--is confirmatory of it. It is possible that Abraham, of Watertown, was also a son of John, of Hawkedon, and that his place in the table should be a degree below that of Abraham of the pedigree, with whom we have identified him, but the balance of probabilities inclines the other way.

BROWNE.

Abraham Browne, a younger brother, or nephew of the Elder, Richard Browne (see Note 7). He was a very early settler, perhaps one of the first of Watertown, and was admitted freeman March 6, 1631-2. He was a land surveyor, and, as is manifest from the records, in the early municipal transactions of the town he received important appointments and trusts more numerous than were conferred upon any other person. No two men were more respected and confided in, than he and his relative, Richard Browne. . . . In 1634, he was appointed, in conjunction with Tobert Seeley, to survey all the lots that are granted; and they were also appointed conservators of timber trees--none to be cut down without their consent.

The Court Records of Middlesex County show that on Oct. 1, 1650, his Will and Inventory was "accepted at Court. And an order of Court, made Oct. 6, 1691, respecting the final settlement of his estate, recites of him as "deceased in the year 1650."

His widow, Lydia, married Nov. 27, 1659, Andrew Hodges of Ipswich. On his (Andrew) death in Dec., 1665, his widow returned to Watertown, where she died Sept. 27, 1686.

By his wife, Lydia, Browne had six children, of whom at least one and probably two were born in England.

Children:

1. Sarah, born in England.
2. Mary, born probably in England; married April 10, 1650, John Lewis of Charlestown, afterwards of Malden. He died Sept. 16, 1657. In 1667 she was wife, or widow, of ----- Culler.
3. Lydia, born in Watertown March 22, 1632-3; married Lieut. William Lakin, Jr., of Groton.
4. JONATHAN, born Oct. 15, 1635.
5. Hannah, buried March 15, 1638-9, aged 14 days.
6. Abraham, born March 6, 1639-40; died in 1667.

4. JONATHAN BROWNE, married Feb. 11, 1661-2, Mary SHATTUCK (Shattuck 3). She died Oct. 23, 1732, aged 87, and was buried in the Waltham graveyard. His Will was dated Feb. 16, 1690-1, and proved April 7, and inventory dated April 1, 1691. His wife and son Abraham were Executors. By his will, dated Aug. 3, 1672, then "aged 50 years." He died Aug. 14, 1672, leaving his widow, Susanna (his only wife), who married Nov. 18, 1673, Master Richard Norcross. She died Dec. 11, 1686.

BALL-TAYLOR.

9062--H.B.Mc. June 14, 1941.

According to a record made by a gr. grandson, the Samuel Ball who mar. Phoebe Taylor was a son of a James Ball who d. aged 95, date of b. and d. unknown. Investigation shows that this James Ball was as follows:

(a) The James Ball of Hadley, Hampshire co., Mass. who on May 10, 1748 memorialized the Judge of Probate for Hampshire Co. regarding an inquiry to determine the mental status of Thomas Ball of Hadley, his bro., which inquiry was ordered the same day to be made by the selectmen of Hadley, the Judge of Probate in his order referring to "Mr. James Ball of Hadley" and "his brother Thomas Ball of Sd Hadley."

(b) The James Ball "of Coldspring (so-called) in the Co. of Hampshire" who, having been "Nominated and allowed to be Guardian unto Thomas Ball his Brother," on Sept. 4, 1749 signed with others, a bond "in the full Sum of Six hundred Pounds" to "well and truly perform and discharge the Trust and Office of Guardian unto Thomas Ball his Brother x x x Co heir of James Ball late of Boston in the County of Suffolk; deceased."

(c) The James Ball who, according to the Record Index to Military Archives of Mass. for Service in Colonial Wars, enlisted Apr. 6, 1759, age 44, residence S. Hadley and again enlisted March 4, 1760, age 40 (reason for diff. in ages not known) b. place Boston.

(d) The James Ball who, according to Judd's Hist. of Hadley, settled in S. Hadley bet. 1731 (then a part of Hadley); and (e)

The James Ball who, according to Warren's Families of Old Springfield, was of S. Hadley when, on May 3, 1759, he mar. Mary Van Horn (prob. as 2nd wife), dau. of Barent (Born or Baun) and Sarah (Smith) Van Horn of Springfield, Mass. b. Jan. 22, 1725-6; d. Dec. 6, 1759.

If further research proves the above correct, James Ball, father of Samuel Ball who mar. Phoebe Taylor, was a son of a James Ball of Boston, Mass. at the time of his death prior to Sept. 4, 1749, when James Ball of Coldspring executed a bond as guardian of his bro. Thomas.

The Samuel Ball who mar. Phoebe Taylor, dau. of Aaron & Katherine (Parsons) Taylor, once of S. Hadley, was b. 1742 or 1743, as proved by his affidavits in his claims for pension for service in the Rev. War, in which on April 29, 1818, he gave his age as 75 yrs. and on July 6, 1820, as 77 yrs. The Rec. Ind. to Military Archives of Mass. for Service in Colonial Wars, shows that Sam (2) Ball, age 17, res. S. Hadley, father or master James Ball, enlisted April 6, 1759, but did not pass muster, and that Samuel Ball, age 18, b. place and res. S. Hadley, father or master James Ball, enlisted March 4, 1760 and was mustered Mar. 8, 1760, the ages given at enlistment making the year of birth 1742.

In two instances the service, dates, names of officers, places, etc. given in the Rec. Index are identical for both Samuel and James Ball. This Samuel Ball was living as late as March 4, 1831, the date of an affidavit regarding his Rev. War Service in files of the General Accounting Office, Washington, D.C. In this affidavit he stated that he had then lived 24 yrs. in Sempronius, Cayuga Co., N.Y.

One descendant's application for membership in the D.A.R. states he d. Mar. 17, 1831; the record made by his gr. grandson gives Feb. 17, 1831. The fact that the records of the General Accounting Office show no payment of pension to him or his heirs after March, 1831, is considered to be evidence that he d. in 1831, prob. March. It is believed that he d. in Sempronius (now Niles) Cayuga Co. N.Y. and was bur. in the cem. at Kelloggsville where the gravestone of Phoebe Ball "wife of Samuel Ball", shows she d. Nov. 1, 1814, age 73 yrs.

Following are the ch. of Samuel and Phoebe (Taylor) Ball:

1. Katherine, b. Feb. 20, 1768, d. Newfane, Vt. Oct. 30, 1850, mar. Oliver Goodenow.
2. Urania, Oct. 1, 1769, d. Jan. 18, 1807, mar. ----- Stockwell.

WAR DEPARTMENT
THE ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE

WASHINGTON January 8, 1937.

IN REPLY ORD.-J.A.Mc.
REFER TO

Respectfully returned to

Dr. H. C. Burleigh,
Bath,
Ontario.

The name Amos Martin has not been found on the records on file in this office of Vermont soldiers in the Revolutionary War.

The records of this office show that one Shadrack Ball, name not borne as Shadrack Ball, served in the Revolutionary War, rank not shown, in Captain Elisha Benedict's Company, 2nd New York Regiment, commanded by Colonel Goose Van Schaick, stationed at Chambly Fort. His name appears only on the company muster roll covering the period from January 1, to January 31, 1776, which shows that he enlisted January 1, 1776. No further record found.

The collection of Revolutionary War records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information may be obtained from the Manuscripts and History Section, New York State Library, Albany, New York, or from the Veterans Administration, Washington, D.C., which has the custody of the United States pension records.

We regret to say that we have not been able to find the memorandum of Solomon Ball referred to in your letter. Our extensive land papers have, due to a very limited staff, never been completely straightened out since our move. In our search, however, we came across two items on Solomon Ball which may be of interest to you; copies of these are enclosed.

In checking up the petition of residents of what is now the village of Bath for erection of a town, we looked up our Journals of the Legislative Assembly for Upper Canada for 1818 and found that the copy which we have is a typewritten one and this

The Ball Brothers from New Fane

Among the many Loyalists to settle in Canada after the American Revolution were three brothers and a sister with the surname of Ball. This family does not seem to have any relationships to the persons of the same name who pioneered in the Niagara Peninsula. This family originated from New Fane, a community several miles northwest of Brattleboro, Vermont, where these children had been born. Their father, evidently James Ball, was one of the original settlers in New Fane, having come from Watertown, Mass., where the family had resided for at least five generations before James made the move in 1731.

~~The first John Ball, born in Wiltshire, England about 1585, was a pilgrim settler in Watertown before 1635. Through six generations of one John after another, there was a son James, b. 1731, who became the pioneer settler in New Fane, Vermont, in 1751. He was followed in several years by his younger brother Samuel.~~

~~Two~~
One of these brothers must have been the father of the three Loyalist brothers, Shadrach, Solomon and Jacob, as well as their sister Susannah, who married Amos Martin. It is my firm belief that it was James, as all four children named a son ~~James~~, while none used the name Samuel. Also, in signing a petition to establish the Gloucester district, we find the signatures of James and Shadrach, assumed to be father and son.

John I. born in Wiltshire, England, ~~early in the 16th~~ ^{about 1585} ~~was~~ admitted a freeman in Watertown Mass., in 1650, and died in 1655. His son John II ~~was~~ a tailor, married Elizabeth Piers. His son John III was born in 1644. He was a weaver and married in 1665 Sarah Bullard. He died in 1722. His son John IV born in 1668 and died in 1752. He married 1699 Betheia Mather and was the father of John V who was born in 1705 and died in 1769. He was a selectman for several years, and married in 1725 Mary Benjamin.

John & Mary were parents of a large family, including James and Samuel. In 1751 a settlement in the mountains of what was to become Vermont, was originated and called New Fane. Among its first-settlers of James and John Ball, who must have been father and son. James was then 20 yrs of age while his father was 47. It is doubtful that the father ever participated in the new settlement. Ten years later, in an extension of the New Fane settlement a Samuel Ball was an early settler. Samuel then was 27 years of age.

One of these two brothers was the father of the Loyalist family originating in New Fane, namely Shadrack, born 1753, Solomon born 1758, Susannah, born 1761 and Jacob born in 1763. It is evident that since he had been born in 1731, while Samuel's father must have been James Ball. A strong item in confirmation must be the fact that all four of these children named a son James, in memory of their father.

Furthermore there are repeated references to James Ball, Shadrack & Jacob Ball, as well as Solomon petitioning for the political establishment of Gloucester & Cumberland Counties in the years just prior to the advent of the Revolutionary War.

There is also record of Shadrack Ball serving in Captain Elisha Benedict's Company of the 2nd New York Regiment at Chamberly Fort in Quebec during January, 1776. It is interesting to note that both Ball and Capt Benedict subsequently were recorded as Loyalist soldiers with Gen Burgoyne.

Early in the summer of 1777, as Gen. Burgoyne made his way slowly to Saratoga, the Ball brothers, Solomon aged 18 and Shadrack aged 23, became members of Col. John Peters' Queens Loyal Rangers on their formation on 24 June of that year. After the defeat at Saratoga they returned to Canada, and subsequently were employed in Secret Service. As they were both well known in Vermont circles, they were frequently used to carry messages to and from the French authorities during the period of indecision. On one of Solomon's trips to New France with a message ~~on~~ on 31 October 1781 bringing with him his young brother, Jacob, then aged 18 years. All three brothers were eventually transferred to George's loyal Rangers in the ~~late~~ ^{late} fall of 1781, with which unit they continued to serve until the disbandment on 24 Dec 1783. None made the decision as where they would settle. With them at that period was their sister, Susannah, by then the wife of Amos Martin, with two small children. ~~Y Martin~~ ^{Y Martin}, under the name of Amos Tanner, had served with the Americans at Bunker's Hill in 1776. Two years later he deserted and ended up in Vermont under an assumed name. Using this name, he and his family eventually found a home on the Bay of Quinte, as did his brothers-in-law, Shadrack ~~and~~ ^{and} Solomon.

Jacob Bull, after the peace, settled on ^{South} Hero Island, at the lower end of Lake Champlain, ~~and did not settle~~ thinking that he was in Canada. By 1794, however, when he discovered that he was in American territory, he removed to the Eastern Townships of Quebec, where his descendants still survive. ~~His family is recorded to be~~

James who became a prominent resident and co-founder of Knowlton in Brown County, Quebec.

Other children unknown.

Little is known of his wife and children, except a son James, who became a prominent resident of Knowlton in Brown County, Quebec.

Shadrack, the older brother, drew land in Charlottenburgh Township in 1784, but relinquished it a few years later and settled in Emattown Township. His wife's name is ~~unknown~~ ^{unknown}, but his children are listed as

They drew their lands by Order-in-Council:

1. Timothy T. of Loughborough. His O.C. dated 4 Sept 1834
2. Angel of Pittsburgh. His O.C. dated 4 Sept 1834.
3. Cyrenus of Loughborough. His O.C. dated 4 Sept 1834
4. Sanford of Pittsburgh. His O.C. dated 4 Sept 1834
5. Belknap of Pittsburgh. His O.C. dated 29 Sept. 1834

Little more is known of Shadrack's family, except that a few of this surname have cropped up in Pittsburgh Township in later years.

Solomon Ball also settled first in Charlottenburg Township in 1784, but, a few years later also removed to Ernesttown Township. His children were listed as they received their land by Order-in-Council.

1. Mercy, married Philip Stafford of Ernesttown, and drew land by O.C. dated 19 Dec 1806
2. Mary, married John Hough of Ernesttown, and drew land by O.C. dated 30 June 1819.
3. Sarah, married Asa Elmer of Ernesttown, and drew land by O.C. dated 25 June, 1823
4. Susan, married Hudson Walker of Ernesttown on 17 Dec., 1820. She drew land by O.C. dated 1 July 1830 and 16 April, 1840
5. Rachel, married — Peters of Ernesttown. She drew land by O.C. dated 27 Feb., 1834.
6. Lucinda, married John Sweep of Ernesttown. She drew land by O.C. 8 Dec 1832
7. Philip of Ernesttown, drew land by O.C. dated 30 Oct, 1827
8. Solomon of Ernesttown, drew land by O.C. dated 18 Aug, 1824.

Solomons descendants are still to be found near the Bay of Quinte, mainly in the Denbigh area and in Portland Township, Frontenac County.

Susannah's husband, Amos Martin, while he had not enlisted in ^{any of} the loyalist regiments, was still within British lines in the latter days of the conflict. It is true that he ~~took~~ apparently took no steps to establish himself as a true loyalist. But he drew lands early in the settlement. He and his family were established on Amherst Island ^{before} 1794, ^{where he was appointed constable.} In that year the Rev. John Langhorn crossed the Bay to serve at the interment of Mrs. Phoebe Ball who could well have been his mother-in-law who had been living with him and family. At the same time ^{15 Sept. 1794} the Rev. Langhorn baptized his ^{five} children. ^{1793.} Their children were:

1. Amos, born in 1782, died ~1859, and married a Miss Vosburgh. He settled in Richmond Township.
2. James born about 1784. According to a family tale, when a young boy was killed when a fallen tree was being cut from the roots, allowing the latter portion to assume its natural position, thus crushing James to death.
3. William born 27 Sept 1791, and baptized on Amherst Island by the Rev. John Langhorn on 15 Sept 1794 with his four siblings. He married Nancy Ouel and settled in Ernesttown.
4. Susannah, known also as Annie, married in 1815 Michael Ryan Percy, and settled in Camden.
5. Mary, born ~1794
6. Deborah, married 23 Dec 1800 Joseph Files.

7 Elisha, born 1799, married in June 1818, Thankful Babcock. He settled in the Florida District of Kingston Township, and finally in Portland Township, where many of his descendants may be found. Amos returned to his home State, Rhode Island, on a visit in 1807. Here he was ill for a long period and never returned to his family. Both he and his wife are married. Amos was living in Brown County in the Eastern Townships in 1837, with his latest wife and a son Simon. Amos died in 1838.

8. ^{Simon} Amos, born in 1816, and settled in Richmond Township, north of Napanee.

The story of Amos and his family is one of the tragic tales arising out of the throes of the American Revolution. After service in the Rebel army, at Lexington in 1776 & 5, he deserted in 1778, reappearing in Vermont under an assumed name. He married a Loyalist and ended up in Canada in 1783. After which he settled along the Bay of Quinte. While here he became the first Senior Warden of the first Masonic Lodge in the Village of Bath, in 1804. He deserted his family in 1807, returning to his birthplace in Rhode Island. He later remarried and settled in the Eastern Townships of Quebec, where he died in 1838. We can only surmise the ^{attains} stresses of those troublous times and their effect on human behaviour.

Dear Doctor;-

I was surprised alright to receive your interesting letter of the 12th inst. on Saturday, and am sending all the information I have been able to gather re the Ball family.

I went to Tichborne Sunday and saw Milo, my half brother, whom I thought could give more information than I had, and he did help some. He said Shadrack, Solomon, Henry, John, and he thought another, either Daniel or Joseph Ball, were transported from England by King George IV. Evidently we are their descendants alright. Milo had a Family Bible of Fathers but at present it is in Adams, N.Y. where Ranse lived, who died recently. I understand about the only information it contains, however, is of our own immediate family.

I am really quite interested in what you are doing, but I think you better make it worth your while by getting after some of the millions somewhere in the States waiting to be claimed by the Balls. Have you ever heard of that?

I very well remember our childhood days back at Vennachar, and playing with your Sisters, but hardly think you were born at that time. A lot of water has gone under the bridge since that time and time makes a lot of changes. You folks were as President Roosevelt says "our good neighbors", and I would be glad if when you are in Kingston and have the time you would call either at the office in the City Hall or at my apartment - No. 20, Annandale.

Dear Mrs. Owen:

I have your letter of 16th inst., for which I return my thanks, even though you did not solve one of my problems. If you had done so, you would have taken from me one reason for living. If we knew everything, there would no longer be any spice in this life. My thanks for extending my years.

I have forgotten the reason you wrote to me originally. therefore I do not have your letter before me, nor my request for information on the Ball family. Nor did I seem to know that you were in Brookline, which is so close to Watertown, where my Ball family resided for several generations. I have before me Bond's Genealogies and History of Watertown, Second Edition. It has

Ball, John (John, John, John) b. 25.12.1705, d. 1769, with two sons, James, b. 1.10.1731.
Samuel, b. 24.8.1734.

In a list of Patentees of Newfane, Vt., 1752-3, are James Ball
John Ball.

These are possibly father and son, possibly of Watertown, Mass.
In a later list of the Second Group of Patentees appears, 3 Nov., 1761,
Samuel Ball

He possibly a younger brother of James.

A Census of Newfane, Vt., in 1790, fails to mention a Ball, possibly because they had left the area.

A Petition of Inhabitants of Gloucester & Cumberland Counties, 5 Feb. 1773
Solomon Ball
James Ball

A Petition re Grants in Gloucester & Cumberland Counties of New York (now Vermont), 1 Nov., 1770, lists
Shadrack Ball
Jacob Ball

Annals of Brattleboro, Vt.,

P. 134. Solomon Ball acted as letter carrier in April, 1780 for General Waldimand to Newfane Shadrack Ball, in Aug., 1782, arrived in Brattleboro with another letter directed to Smith.

Waldimand Papers show, 1 Jan., 1783, as soldiers in Loyal Rangers Reg't, Shadrack Ball, aged 29 yrs., born in America, height 5' 6 "
Solomon Ball " 24 " do " 5' 3 "
Jacob Ball " 19 " do " 5' 8 "

A review of the first patentees of Newfane reveals that many of them bore names common in Watertown, Mass. I believe that James Ball, as shown above, was the father of three sons, Shadrack, b. 1753, Solomon b. 1759, and Jacob, b. 1763. They had a sister, Susannah, b. 1761, marr. about 1781, Mos Martin. Mos, wife, and two children were in St. John Quebec, in Jan., 1781. Mos and Susannah were my gr. gr. grandparents.

These three brothers, Thadrach, Solomon, and Jacob, served as soldiers in Jessup's Loyal Rangers, and were discharged 24 Dec., 1781. The two elder brothers settled in the Prescott area in eastern Ontario, later removing to the Township in which I now live. Jacob settled on Grand Isle, thinking that he was in Canada, but later removed to the Eastern Townships, as you have noted. Susannah, husband and family, removed to my township. At some later time, Susannah's mother, Thoebe, came to reside with her. Thoebe died in 1793.

I believe that the father of these children was James Ball, b. 1731, in Watertown. He must have married Thoebe in Watertown before 1752, as the first son, Thadrach, was born in 1753.

I have another problem. It has to do with Mos Martin, the husband of Susannah Ball. It is an unpleasant story. I believe I have proof that his true name was Mos Tanner. He was a scion of the Tanner family of Rhode Island (see that genealogy). He was at the Battle of Bunker's Hill on the American side. In 1777 or 8, he deserted, leaving a wife and two or three children. Later he turned up in Vermont, where he served in two short periods. Later he married Susannah, and finally ended up in 1785 in my locality. In 1807, he left his family and returned to Rhode Island. By 1817 he had remarried, as did Susannah. He eventually settled in Drone township, at which time he was known as Mos Tanner. A son of this third marriage, Simeon, after Mos' death in 1837, came to my township, where he settled and eventually died.

But do not let my troubles lean too heavily on your shoulders. I thought of Mos when you gave me the information about Jacob Ball.

Again, my sincere thanks for your letter. Write at your leisure

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

While looking through the book "Contributions to the Eastern Townships" by Cyrus Thomas, tonight I came across the following:

"He (Jacob Ball) was formerly from Newfane, Vt. He removed to GRand Isle County about 1781 and came from that place to St. Armand (Que. in the Eastern Townships. My note.), in 1794. He settled a short distance north of Frelighsburg, on the lot, a part of which is now (1864) owned by J. Knapp. Here he lived till he came to Brome. He erected his first dwelling in this township, on the spot now occupied by the store of E.L. Chandler. He opened a public house as early as 1805. In 1804, he built a saw-mill on the site of the present saw-mill of D. Smith (1864-66).

Mr. Ball left three children, two sons and a daughter. his daughter married Stephen Westover, of whom a sketch is given in the history of North Sutton. (Stephen, son of Moses Westover of Sheffield, Mass. - a loyalist). One of his (Jacob Ball) sons has resided in Canada West for many years - the other Captain James Ball, is still living in Brome. He was one of the first school commissioners in the township, and held the office of road commissioner for several years. During the rebellion he was captain of a company of militia. In 1855 he was appointed Superintendent of roads and bridges for the County of Brome."

Because of the fact that a son of Jacob Ball lived in Canada West "for many years" and James Ball lived in the E.T., I am wondering if this clarifies that your 3rd great grandfather was Samuel Ball. Could you have mistaken that their father was John Ball and should be Jacob Ball? I realize I am only jumping to conclusions and that there were two, possibly brothers, John and Jacob, each having sons named James. But if I am right, and James Ball lived in the E. T., then Samuel must have been your ancestor as he is reported living in Canada West or Upper Canada.

No need to reply to this letter - just thought I would draw this to your attention. Will see what I can find on Sarah....., who married Weeden Walker.

I may have more information on the Ball's in my copy of E.M. Taylor's "History of Brome County" which is at my home in Carp. Perhaps a library in your area will carry a copy of those two volumes but will try to remember to do some searching on that upon my return to Carp next summer.

Trust you are enjoying this lovely fall weather. Had a trip to N.Y. State last week-end and visited the home of my ancestors - a thrilling experience!

Sincerely,

Phyllis Owen
